1. "On the island of Sarema two new automobile roads for two-way traffic were finished in the autumn of 1952. The first road leads from Kingissepp (formerly Kuressaare) through to Kogula-Kihelkonna-Kurevere-Tagamoisa and Vaigu, where it goes right to the seashore.
2. The second road links Kogula, Lunanda, and Atla, where it also goes right up to the seashore.
3. "As of summer 1953 a protection dike against north winds is being built at Vaigu. It runs eastwards from the seashore and is to be 1000 metres long. The automobile road runs up on the dike.
4. "The above constructions are built for the Navy and its numerous airfields on Saaremaa. None answers any vital civilian need."
